

ICD Coding Workshops
26th/27th August, Te Amorangi Conference Room (G.07),
Statistics House, Wellington

PROGRAMME

9.45 – 10.00am	Tea and coffee
10.00 – 10.05am	Welcome to Statistics New Zealand Luke Crawford, Senior Maori Adviser Relationships
	Statistics House - housekeeping Injury Information Team, Statistics New Zealand
10.05 – 10.10am	Workshop welcome address John Wren, Principal Advisor Research, Strategic Policy and Research, ACC

Morning session:

10.10 – 11.30am	ICD-10-AM Classification for morbidity coding Tracy Thompson, Senior Analyst, Classification and Terminology, Ministry of Health
11.30 – 11.40am	Questions and short break
11.40 – 12.20pm	Data quality in the National Minimum Dataset (NMDS) Angela Pidd, Team Leader, Data Quality National Collections, Ministry of Health
12.20 – 12.30pm	Questions and discussion
12.30 – 1.15pm	Lunch

Afternoon session:

1.15 – 1.45pm	Classifying causes of death in the Mortality Collection Christine Fowler, Team Leader, Mortality Collection, Ministry of Health
1.45 – 2.00pm	Questions and discussion
2.00 – 2.20pm	Distributing and using injury data held by the Ministry of Health Simon Ross, Team Leader, Analytical Services, Ministry of Health
2.20 – 2.30pm	Questions and discussion
2.30 – 3.00pm	Panel discussion - Chaired by John Wren, ACC John and the programme presenters from the Ministry of Health will form a panel to assist further discussion on the day's programme. Items for discussion may include 'What have we learnt?' and 'What issues do we still face in analysing accident and injury data from the available data collections?'
3.00 – 3.15pm	Afternoon tea

Closing session:

3.15 – 3.30pm	General discussion and sharing of information
3.30 – 3.35pm	Close: John Wren, ACC